What User likes about Sidi Bou London: the only and best Tunisian restaurant in Britain! we had a great time here. we came for the day of the mother and experienced really nice hostess with explanations of the food and a look into their Tunisian origin. Of course, it was delicious. I chose the lamb with heap and was made with their handmade genuine Harissa sauce. it was a good level of gratification, although if they want it hotter they can pick up (on th... read more. As a guest, you can use the WiFi of the establishment at no extra cost, And into the accessible rooms also come visitors with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. If the weather conditions are right, you can also eat and drink outside. Sidi Bou London from London offers delectable, well digestible Mediterranean cuisine with its characteristic dishes, there are also delicious vegetarian menus in the menu. For those who are not yet convinced, to persuade themselves to visit the Sidi Bou London, the smell of fresh flatbread or the delicious, sticky sweetness that fresh baklava promises might help - the Middle East is definitely closer than one imagines, Above all, the fine juices enjoy great popularity among the guests.
