The service and scenery was fantastic and I had the best daiquiri I ever had. Two stars gone for the food. We struggled to chew through everything. The meat was not falling off the bones of my ribs, I love ribs too much to leave any, so I ate it all. My mother inlaw really struggled to eat her burger. It was just hard! Even the chips though piping hot were tough to chew. The salad was just like chewing kale leaves. W... read more.
