What Sai Ashraf doesn't like about Olea Mediterranean:

This is not authentic Turkish food. I got the chicken Shish with rice. The rice was over cooked and clumped together, and the chicken was bland and clearly oven cooked, even though it was advertised as charcoal grilled. The servers were lovely however, but the food needs work. Overpriced for a fairly small portion too. Service:

The Olea Mediterranean in Bradford-on-Avon offers fine Greek cuisines like Gyros, Souvlaki and Seafood, along with sides like fries and a salad with feta cheese, as well as Pita bread and Tzatziki, Furthermore, the light and healthy dishes on the menu are among the favorites of the customers. The savory Spanish meals from the kitchen of the house are also worth it, In addition to that, the visitors of the restaurant can also enjoy typical meals from Turkey - starting from Lahmacun, over different kinds of Kebabs, to sticky-sweet desserts.
