We stumbled over this place while we walked the city. The food was delicious and the service was excellent. The ambience was great, seemed like a pretty trendy pub. Not too expensive is about £50.00 for a bottle of wine and two main courses. We liked it so much that we came back for our last night in Riga! Recommended. read more.

What Foodo Haggins doesn't like about Cydonia Gastropub:

We split a platter of mixed goodies and had some beers and champagne. It was all good. The service wasn't the best for a large group of people. The staff were either totally new at serving guests or just didn't understand english. Sure, they seemed a bit swamped but could have taken all our orders before rushing to start on the first ones.
