What User likes about The Sea Street Sushi: this small, unimaginable restaurant in the center of the city is not disappointed. the sushi rolls are quite large and they have a lot of options. if they are not a sushi fan, they can order dishes like crispy chicken and rice or poke bowls. I ordered the sashimi and it came with rice, seaweedsalat and a great selection of fish. the food came fast and it was delicious. it is a small restaurant so it fills quickly dur... read more. What User doesn't like about The Sea Street Sushi:

had a time off of tempoura and the sea road special. sushi had this look, but was a taste. tempura has become better. the brocoli and gurkentempura were strange, but the prawn tempura (4 large pieces) were good tasting, although cold and easy soggy after soaking into the sauce. the sushi rice found too wet and exaggerated by edgy, while the rice that accompanied the tempura was a harder lump. totally filled in portio...
