When I called in the capital during a short visit, I was really happy to discover the place. peaceful and cozy with the nicest personal they would ever like to meet. I am a coffee fanatic and really wish I had more time as I liked to have 3-4 tassen on the go, the coffee here was excellent. add a fast snack of smashed avocado on acidic teig toast, which was fresh and well presented. I'm back in a definitiw. read more. In beautiful weather you can even eat in the outdoor area. What User doesn't like about The Edinburgh Coffee Lounge:

Not very happy with these guys. Sold 'gluten-free' cake that wasn't gluten free, on two separate occasions this week. I know it's festival time but that's a reason to be more careful, surely? I checked three times with them before purchasing and only found out by accident when Saturday staff offered me an ingredients list, after I tried to buy the cake a third time. This isn't good enough. I'm not going to die... read more.
