They're looking for protection from the snow. From the cold before you say goodbye. Enter a cozy wooden door, just like Alice Peak inside, implore. Since this place will enchant you, take your soul and heart. People laugh, live and laugh, enjoy salt and forget the past. The menu serves no less amazing, maybe even blow a dish yet. And I don't know what to get, it stabbed me and menu. I'm forced through the menu and th... read more. When the weather is good you can also eat outside. What User doesn't like about Salt:

Sadly, we didn't have a great experience. First, we had to wait for our table outside in freezing cold for 30 minutes despite booking in advance. We were given free drinks while we were waiting so that was a plus. However, the food wasn't great either. Some dishes were way too salty. The biggest disappointment was the red wine chorizo risotto that was soaking in so much lemon juice that the sourness made it very diff... read more.
