There were only 3 options on the set menu and they had run out of one of each course leaving very poor choice. Fries came soaked in salt so much so it left a salt pile on the plate. read more. When the weather is pleasant you can also eat outside, And into the accessible rooms also come customers with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. What User doesn't like about Apex City of Bath:

Although the food was good, we waited over 30 minutes just to be asked for our drinks order and for this we had to go up to the desk to get someone's attention. After that the service remained quite slow. It also seemed people around us had similar service issues, with food/drinks taking too long and mains being brought out before starters. A lot of the time you would have to get the staffs attention yourself by gett... read more.
