It may not be much to look at from the outside, but is well worth a visit inside... Went for Father's Day lunch, the service was prompt but certainly not rushed and the waiter took the time to explain his view on the items on the menu. Food was excellent and great value on the buffet offer poppadoms, mixed starter any item from main dishes (except king prawns) with sag aloo and rice. Before the tip, it came to under... We were the only table in the restaurant and yet the service was slow and one of the meals came out five minutes after everyone else's. The food was ok but there are much nicer Indian restaurants locally. read more. Are you looking for pudding?
