Good price to quality. Location a bit far from centre of Galway, but the spot is great close to the Prom and nice neighborhood. Room was clean and the bed very comfy. Good choice overall, the only downside were noisy other guests, the door shut very loudly in the corridor which was annoying at night. read more. What User doesn't like about Tyson's Seafood:

Casual, comfortable clean. All you'd need for a sleepover. Mattress was a bit hard and felt cheap though it didn't stop me from sleeping. Good pillows. Fire alarm went off in the middle of the night. No breakfast and although we didn't mind as we had other plans anyway, still, the rate was what I'd consider a B&B rate. read more.
