Best chicken tikka dhansak for a very long time with tasty sweet naan, Dry wit o gee slopping around and was hot to taste and temperature. Quite excellent. Slightly surprised only to be presented with lime pickle to accompany x2 very fresh poppadums however. But generous crisp mixed side salad with dhansak made a pleasant change. Very friendly and chatty waiter but sad to see the restaurant so quiet mid week. read more. My husband and I visited for meal together and while the food was good the service was not. Took 30 minutes to clear away our main course plates after we were finished and we were the only table in. Didn't ask if we wanted dessert and as we had ordered off the pre theatre menu tea/coffee or ice cream were included, I had to go to the bar to order dessert. Very slow response again after we were finished our desserts s... read more.
