came to his burgers because of very positive web reviews. so the expectations were very high! burgers were good, they only have one version, so this is not the place for chocolate people. pls care, they serve only 10 burgers per day to serve fresh rolls and because it is a steak house, not a burger joint. personally very friendly and surprisingly cheesecake! read more. What User doesn't like about St. Lars:
here for a bachelor party with a large group (maintained). the service was slow, which is understandable as it was a busy night and we were a big group. they neglected to serve us the last wein of our web package, but we still neglected it. After I email the themes they were released, and claimed that they gave us additional wee for the other courses that were not true. Finally, they have apologised and agreed to pay... read more.
