It's a great place for dinner dates. Great food and drinks menu. The staff was super friendly and helpful. The ambience was quite nice too. Remember to book a table before the visit. read more. What Ada Bunea doesn't like about Jay Fu's:

We tried the mixed starters and the mixed grill. The food was ok, but nothing was particularly good. For my taste, the starters were too greasy and heavy, and the steaks had enough barbecue sauce to overpower the meat's taste. The place is quite loud and dark. The staff seems to have been trained to serve in an American style constantly asking about your food etc. I like the concept of the restaurant very much, but t... read more. Enjoy the tasty menus and enjoy the spectacular view of the local places of importance at the establishment, and you can look forward to the tasty typical seafood cuisine.
