The concept is interesting, the meals are presented in glasses. You have the opportunity to eat or take away. The owner is super friendly and offers you all the information you need. We had two vegan dishes: the paella of vegetables and the lasagna with sunflower; both were tasty. We found the portions for the price somewhat too small. read more. You can use the WiFi of the restaurant free of charge, And into the accessible rooms also come visitors with wheelchairs or physical disabilities. What User doesn't like about Dream Food:

Extremely nice owner but unfortunately the food is a mistake. Many dishes are made 2 weeks before and taste like bad airplane food. All quite expensive for the mini portions. Should be called Dream of Better Food. Bocco is a much better option for people liking the pre-made food concept. read more. Late at night enjoy a small, but delectable meal? This is possible in this Brasserie - and at a reasonable price, Besides, the inventive blend of different menus with new and sometimes adventurous products is appreciated by the visitors - a beautiful case of Asian Fusion. If you decide to come for breakfast, you are offered a versatile brunch, The customers of the restaurant are also thrilled with the comprehensive selection of differing coffee and tea specialities that the establishment offers.
