I visited for Sunday dinner with my family. Amazing experience down to the security checking eating in the restaurant and leaving through the big metal controlled gates : The food was amazing so tasty, the inmates were all so chatty and lovely so well done to you all including the chefs of course. I want to say a massive well done to Ted our waiter. It was his first day he was lovely he took the time to speak about him... read more. The restaurant and its rooms are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physical disabilities. What A D

doesn't like about The Clink High Down:

Have you tried the banoffee? Hard as rock. Desert spoon not served. We had to use our main meal fork and spoon. We did complain about the banoffee but the chef said THEY WERE TAUGHT TO DO IT THAT WAY, so they are not liable to refund. Many bad reviews like this are being deleted. So pay what your monies worth. We hammered the banoffee with the main course fork and spoon and it flew off the table. From banoffee to BAN... read more. A journey through Great Britain without getting on a plane is effortlessly possible when it comes to culinary delights: The Clink High Down in Sutton traditionally shines for instance with Fish and Chips, mashed potatoes or roast with Yorkshire Pudding and for dessert a fine Trifle, there are also delicious vegetarian meals on the menu. If you'd like something dessert for dessert, The Clink High Down does not disappoint with its good selection of desserts, Likewise, the guests of the establishment prefer the extensive variety of differing coffee and tea specialities that the restaurant provides.
