Rollled up way too late to expect a Sunday lunch but the staff bent over backwards to fit us in and went on to supply one of the best Sunday lunches we have had for ages. On top of the splendid food the beer was excellent and all served by a very friendly bunch. read more. In nice weather you can even eat in the outdoor area, and there is no-charge WLAN. The premises on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for guests with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. A journey through Great Britain without getting on a plane is absolutely possible when it comes to culinary delights: The Wenlock Arms in York traditionally shines for instance with Fish and Chips, mashed potatoes or roast with Yorkshire Pudding and for dessert a sweet Trifle, You can take a break at the bar with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
