This is my second review of plateau 8 years on from the last. It's not our second visit though we always go to plateau when I'm Brighton 6 or so times a year. It's so laid back whilst keeping standards very high. Exceptional food, wonderful wine and marvellous, knowledgeable, engaging staff. I didn't hug the waitress this time I asked first the last time) but I could have. Lunch here is exceptional. Evolve yes, but d... read more. The restaurant offers complimentary WLAN for its customers, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and eat. What User doesn't like about Plateau:

We went for lunch today. We used to go often in the past, but slowly the quality of food went down; there is no consistency. The food was very oily and did not taste great in general. We complained to the waiter (in the most kind way possible), who did not take it very nicely, saying that the kitchen was quite busy, which explained the quality of the food. It was a disappointing experience. I don't think we will be b... read more. The eatery offers a bit of this and a bit of that with its appreciated Tapas, In addition, the current games or races can be watched on the big TV in this sports bar, which the customers also love. If you want to have breakfast, a hearty brunch awaits you, the place serves also dishes from the European environment.
