Friendly staff. They were very busy but we were served our food very quickly (delicious). And the cocktails made our little night out! Had a few mishaps with missing cutlery but it was really no problem at all! Everyone is doing their best. It's a pandemic, we were just delighted to be OUT OUT with great food and professionally made cocktails!! read more. What User doesn't like about The Cliff:

I had a really nice Burger here today and the Service was pretty good, the only thing I didn't like was that the prices of some Main courses could have been slightly cheaper but my Burger was delicious you also need to reduce the price of your desserts 8 euro is way too expensive like. But would go here again. read more. The Cliff from Ballybunion is a good option for a bar if you want to have a beer after work and sit with friends or alone, And of course, you should also try the fine burgers, with sides such as fries, salads, or wedges provided. If you decide to come for breakfast, a versatile brunch is ready for you, Indulge in the impressive view of the delicious arrangements of the meals and also enjoy a excellent view of some of the regional attractions.
