It's so good to come back to a lovely place for tea and a bite to eat. The staff is pleasant and welcoming. The furniture is nice and authentic wooden style. There is a lot of people that come here to chat and relax in...the very comfortable experience. There is also wifi available. There was a few lovely cakes on offer which looked very nice. It's a good place to come for a chat a rest after buying great farmhouses... read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat in nice weather, and there is complimentary WLAN. The premises on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for visitors with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. What

Melissa Cox doesn't like about Eliza's Tea Rooms:

We are locals and went to Eliza's just before the lock down. The service was terrible even though only two tables were busy (including ours). It was only so not near closure time. We waited for more than minutes to get our four...hot chocolates for the children and two coffees. And when we got them, the hot chocolates were lukewarm, so we had to ask them to heat the up. Not the service you would imagine from a nearly... read more. At Eliza's

Tea Rooms from Waverley, there are tasty sandwiches, healthy salads and other snacks for quick hunger in between, as well as cold and hot beverages, for breakfast they serve a varied breakfast here. Not to be left out is the extensive selection of coffee and tea specialties in this restaurant, You can also unwind at the bar with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
