What User doesn't like about The Kings Arms: We dined here twice in our week's stay. The landlord and his wife were both friendly and very accommodating and, despite being busy, were able to squeeze us in as a group of 7 on the first occasion (we booked after! . The food is pub fayre, well done and good portions. I had the haunch of venison which was good. Service was efficient and despite being busy they got the food out quickly.
