Here you can find the menu of Kokoro in Dublin. At the moment, there are 16 meals and drinks on the card. You can inquire about seasonal or weekly deals via phone. What User likes about Kokoro:

From what I have seen the Kokoro branches have closed down, which is a real shame because their health and happiness bento box was a personal favourite of mine in the city center. It was easy to just walk in and pick one up near the end of the week. If they reopen then I will be back with my loyalty card and all, but if not I will have to look elsewhere. read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physiological limitations, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and eat and drink. What

User doesn't like about Kokoro:

I bought Onigiri, a tuna and a salmon, they are the worse onigiri I've ever tasted. They use a form to squeeze the sushi, it should be sushi rice, but it uses fried rice instead, nothing like in local Japanese restaurants. The shop offers other menus and they are probably better(rice bowl ramen curry), but I think there are many better Japanese restaurants in Dublin too. read more. Kokoro from Dublin is a suitable bar to a drink after work, and hang out with friends, and you can look forward to the fine typical seafood cuisine. Kokoro uses a lot of fresh vegetables, fish and meat for its easily digestible Japanese cuisine, On the menu there are also several Asian menus.
