Having taken several people here in the past 6 months, universally the feedback has been glowing. A massively varied menu encompassing some Nepalese, Chinese and Indian cuisine. The restaurant is basic, don't let that put you off, the food is excellent, and plentiful. Having lived in London, midlands, have eaten at a lot of curry houses and this one is at the summit (Everest joke!! read more. You can use the WiFi of the restaurant free of charge, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and eat. What neilc doesn't like about Namaste Himalaya:

A most unusual combination of dishes and great flavour in the Gurker curry I had. Good location just off the centre of Exmouth. My only negative was the cost of all the food was very high and no justification for the high price. My advice is that they review their menu and offer the same meals for under £10. read more. You can at Namaste Himalaya from East Devon savor delicious vegetarian courses, in which no animal meat or fish was brought into play, With traditional Indian spices, dishes are delicious and freshly prepared. The Asian fusion cuisine is also an important part of Namaste Himalaya. Anyone who finds the normal and generally known dishes too boring should approach with a willingness to experiment and try some unexpected combination of ingredients eat, You can also unwind at the bar with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
