My wife found the Natterjack through Tripadvisor when we were looking for a good restaurant near Glastonbury. It is a bit of a drive, but worth the effort. From the moment you step inside its a lovely experience. Tables glow in candlelight, staff young and friendly, bright colours, a warm feeling. Local produce is to the fore, servings are plentiful. Our seven starters arrived after only a short wait, all together, a... read more. You can use the WiFi of the place at no extra cost, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and eat and drink. The rooms on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for guests with wheelchairs or physical limitations. What Carrie James doesn't like about The Natterjack:

We allegedly had a superior room. No one was around when we arrived but the key was in the door. We tried to switch the lights on, but realized the were already on the only place with adequate lighting was the bathroom. Dinner in...the inn was OK, breakfast was poor. Orange juice had been watered down, and the hollandaise sauce was thin and vinegary, service was minimal. Our room wasn't made up, allegedly because of C... read more. At the local, the fresh and delicious juices on the drinks menu wonderfully complement the menus, Furthermore, the sugar-sweet treats of this restaurant sparkle not only on children's plates and in children's eyes. You can also look forward to tasty vegetarian cuisine, You can also unwind at the bar with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
