Love going here for breakfast, lunch or dinner. The garden is perfect for families with young kids as there is plenty of garden for them to run around toys provided. The food is excellent and the staff very pleasant and friendly. Family owned. You can't beat a family owned hotel. Recommend it to everyone. Not just families with little ones it a very nice place to go for a romantic dinner read more. What proreviewerx doesn't like about The Garden Room:

A group of 20 of us booked in for dinner at the restaurant. The staff were very inexperienced. The time between the first and last main course being server was nearly half a hour. The deserts were also served the same and a over half had to be sent back due to tiny deserts and every Apple crumble was raw. The food was ok in the end but the service was very disappointing.
