This place serves the most amazing Kurdish dishes, and I have not once been disappointed in my many and regular visits to this place. It has a very charming air of simplicity and is very unpretentious. The food is a treat for the taste buds. The service is impeccable and the food is so filling. read more. In beautiful weather you can even be served in the outdoor area. What Lucas Collins doesn't like about Arbil:

The otherwise big and smooth night was made up for by the unbearable attitude of the staff. First, the atmosphere is filled with loud music. When we came to eat we were charged for the dishes we didn't order. When we complained the manager was ignorant and rude. Not back! read more. Whether you opt for a tasty flatbread which is refined with a spicy garlic paste, or crispy falafel, the cuisines from the Middle East transport you for a moment to a distant land - as dessert a honey-like, crispy baklava, you can return satisfied to your daily life. Also, the customers of the restaurant love the extensive variety of various coffee and tea specialities that the establishment has to offer. Undoubtedly, the highlight of this place is the delightful Sushi such as Nigiri and Inside-Out.
