A lovely place serving the classic staples and more. Very good quality of food especially the fried chicken which understandably is immensely popular so get them when you get the chance to because they do sell out quick.

However, occasionally the chips are a bit hit or miss. Very friendly staff who are lovely to speak to, always go here when I crave a chippy. Would highly recommend! read more. What Natalie James doesn't like about

Neptunes Fish Chips:

I was disappointed the fact that I was charged £1 extra to what was on their board for fish. I had to ask and she had different price menu beside her which was deceiving. The fish was small and dry but chips were lovely. Wish they would honour the price they have on display for customers otherwise change it!! All adds up read more. If
