Very impressed with quality of beer here. Had the best pint of bitter here I've had in a long time (Otter Ale) so much so I visited several times during a short visit to the town. Food was good and very reasonable prices. read more. In pleasant weather you can even eat and drink in the outdoor area, And into the accessible spaces also come visitors with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. WiFi is available without additional charges. What Ava Martin doesn't like about The Quay Inn:

The Quay Inn was recommended to us as it was 100 yards from where we were staying. We ordered the Steak and our daughter the Cod Chips. We both left most of our steaks as there were really tough and lacking any flavour. We...didn't find the staff particularly friendly either. We won't be going back. read more. During meals, a refreshing drink is essential. In this gastropub, you will find not only tasty menus, but also a large and comprehensive diversity of good beers and other alcoholic drinks that compliment the food, for breakfast they serve a extensive breakfast here. It should not be forgotten that there is a extensive selection of coffee and tea specialties in this restaurant, You can also unwind at the bar with a cool beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
