Came here for lunch and was excited by the amount of choice for vegans. The atmosphere was lovely and the food we ordered were good sized portions for the price. Highlights included asparagus frites, and the sweet chilli cauliflower. Delicious hummus and amazing, fresh sourdough. read more. The premises on site are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities. What JoLikeskittles doesn't like about Polidor 68:

Good VF startees nice hummus, asparagus frites and padrón peppers But both times I've tried the main dishes (roast cauliflower or falafel burger) they have been very bland and tasteless. The staff didn't serve our drinks until we were half way through starter and rushed us through the rest of the meal (serving our main whole we were still in the middle of our starter). Not bad if there's nowhere else to eat read more. A journey through Great Britain without getting on a plane is absolutely possible when it comes to culinary delights: Polidor 68 in Liverpool traditionally shines for example with Fish and Chips, mashed potatoes or roast with Yorkshire Pudding and as dessert a fine Trifle, the menu also includes fine vegetarian menus. The kitchen of the Polidor 68 also offers many international dishes, here they serve a diverse brunch for breakfast.
