We have just got back from a fabulous evening and an amazing meal for Grandad's 85th Birthday. The service was exceptional Pete's wife served us, so sorry can't remember her name but she is a credit to the business. I had a fillet steak with salad and chips with George's famous coleslaw and Cornish crab cakes from the specials starters board so good) would absolutely recommend a visit to this lovely, family run resta... What RegularTravellerMatt doesn't like about George's:

It's difficult to decide overall how to rate this place. On the one hand some dishes our party had were delicious and authentic. But on the other, some of the salads were bland and tasteless and didn't seem to be made with decent ingredients. The service was very variable too. From a gruff unfriendly greeting to helpful and attentive at different points in the meal. The restaurant was super hot and the air con did no... read more.
