The presentation of the food is very good and tasty but nothing out of the ordinary. I had smoked salmon for a starter. The featherblade for main which was very tender and tasty but much too big for me to finish but that's just me....I had the panna cotta which was very nice but the fruit on top was very bitter and sharp. Overall a very nice three course meal that was on offer as a guest for Drinks are very expensive... read more. What Yvonne Robinson doesn't like about Wine Bar Brasserie Restaurant Derby:

I've reviewed the hotel before but haven't had the chance to eat in the restaurant. On balance, I think the food was average. Whilst I enjoyed my meal, I think it was slightly over priced albeit I won't be paying eventually. The atmosphere was quiet...and there seems to be external diners rather than just guests.
