The food was amazing! The starters were a magnificent trip to Middle East and the pistachio chicken was exquisite! The gastronomic experience ended with a piece of baklava straight from heaven! Lovely environment and the service the kindest. I would highly recommend this restaurant and I am looking forward to my next visit soon! read more. In pleasant weather you can even eat and drink in the outdoor area. What Nikki Khan doesn't like about Persian Empire:

Being Arab, I'm always on the hunt for authentic Middle Eastern food. I came here for lunch and all in all, was content with the food. I ordered the lamb kofta which was nice; admittedly the lamb was a little on the dry side, and the rice lacked the signature taste I craved for. That being said, the food was value for money (you won't break the bank here), and staff were quick to serve us. read more. At the moment one might start to consider possibly eating healthier; exactly for that reason, Persian Empire's menu offers a large variety of easily digestible dishes. Also, the guests of the establishment love the extensive selection of differing coffee and tea specialities that the restaurant has to offer. After the meal (or during it), you have the opportunity to still relax at the bar with a alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink.
