Had a very pleasant visit with the family for breakfast. The food was excellent and the staff were very friendly with great service. One of the staff, I think her name was Julie, made us feel very welcome and she informed us that it was her daughter who had served us at the till, another friendly smiling face. We will definitely return. read more. When the weather is good you can also eat and drink outside. What Lesley B doesn't like about Quick

Crepes:

The service was really bad ended up walking out I only wanted coffee and travels got my coffee but kept waiting for teacake while she saved other people who she knew this happens every time she is in supposed to be in charge that's a laugh she just doesn't care I have seen her reading reviews in the middle of the restaurant and laughing at the bad reviews you need to change your staff read more.
