Stayed overnight for work and couldn't be more delighted lovely, tasteful rooms that respect the building's heritage, very comfy bed, delicious food (dinner and breakfast) and a great price! A great asset to Barrow and a reminder of why we should support local business above chain hotels. Will 100% stay again read more. In pleasant weather you can even eat and drink in the outdoor area, and there is complimentary WLAN. The premises on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for visitors with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. What Lisa Bennett doesn't like about The Duke Of Edinburgh:

Went here for a special occasion whilst up in the Lakes. The menu looks good and some decent specials. Starters were good, especially the pork belly. The main courses weren't what I expected, the sea bream dish with a pea fricassee was basically pan fried sea bream with fried potatoes, peas, chorizo and baby onions. No sauce that I could pick up. Didn't get this dish at all and I don't think it was served as intended... read more. A visit to The Duke Of Edinburgh becomes even more rewarding due to the comprehensive variety of coffee and tea specialties, Inthemorning a versatile brunch is offered here. Even if you're only not so much hungry, you can still treat yourself to one of the delicious sandwiches, a healthy salad or another snack, Furthermore, the drinks list in this restaurant is impressive and offers a good and extensive diversity of beers from the area and from worldwide, which are definitely worth a try.
