Polly's Cafe in Hampstead attracts a literary crowd and locals, with a vintage style and cozy ambiance. While some mention it may need a deep clean and modernization, others praise the friendly service and delicious food options. Overall, it's a charming spot with character, offering a varied menu and a warm welcome to visitors.

Whether you're in the mood for a full English breakfast or a slice of carrot cake, Polly's is a pleasant place to relax and enjoy a casual meal. With the potential for improvement in service and cleanliness, it remains a favorite among those seeking a unique cafe experience.
