Discovered this place a couple of months ago when we first moved to Scarborough, managed to make it up the stairs and inside this time. Great views overlooking the harbour and the seafront. Quite spacious inside complete with a balcony to sit on when the weather is good. Dog friendly. Good choice of breakfasts at a decent price and plenty on the plate. Had a bacon bap which was full of bacon and nicely cooked just ho... read more. The place also offers the possibility to sit outside and have something in pleasant weather. What Andy Morgan doesn't like about Harbour View Cafe:

A proper cafe including attitude … there's more hair on the premises than clothes Listen we are here food was ok. staff young and old were not overly friendly and although there were only 3 small tables occupied we waited quiet a while for takeaway read more.
