Covid compliant. Jack's has implemented excellent covid compliance. Greeted at door asked to hand sanitise and shown to table. Staff friendly and wearing visors/masks. Laminated menu and order taken at table. Even the pens used to fill in contact tracing details if you don't have...the app are cleaned before next usage. Made such a pleasant change to meet with consistent compliance to make the experience as safe as p... read more. The restaurant and its rooms are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physical disabilities, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and eat and drink. What Bianca Guerreiro doesn't like about Jack's Of Melbourne:

This was a nice little cafe and I would be giving our visit an excellent rating if it hadn't been for the overbaked spud that was served. Ordering baked potato is always a gamble, so I was keeping my fingers crossed for a fluffy' one,...as described on the menu. Sadly it wasn't to be, the poor spud having been reduced to the starchy, mushy quality I'd hoped to avoid. It was a bit of a shame, as the accompanying salad... read more. At Jack's Of Melbourne from South Derbyshire it's possible to savor delicious vegetarian menus, that were made without any animal meat or fish, here they serve a diverse brunch in the morning. Of course, we must not forget the large selection of coffee and tea specialties in this restaurant, Particularly fans of the British cuisine are excited about the extensive diversity of traditional dishes and love the typical English cuisine.
