My daughter and I popped in last week for a quick lunch, with moderate expectations, having never been before. However we both thoroughly enjoyed really, really good burgers, and were looked after by friendly/jolly staff. As a result we have booked to come back again tomorrow for lunch and are very much looking forward to it. I recommend the Plough on the Green as a great, straightforward, sensibly priced pub. There... read more. What User doesn't like about The Plough On The Green:

Ordered a pint and a glass of wine. Returned the wine because the glass was dirty. Barmaid tipped the wine from the dirty glass into a different glass! (She tried to conceal that). The second glass was also dirty!! read more.
