Ordered a surprise birthday cake for a friend over the phone (I live hundreds of miles away) and the staff were incredibly helpful and went out of their way to accommodate me. The cake was delicious by all accounts and much appreciated! read more. What User doesn't like about Real Patisserie:

Service is still excellent, but the standard of the food has really dropped. Much of it is clearly low quality ingredients and disappointing, obviously the owners have got greedy and decided to maximise profits at the expense of losing their old customers. read more.
