Been three times (twice on Living Social admittedly) and had a great time, the 2nd visit I had the biggest burrito I've seen, and whilst the other times was of a more normal size it was still great value. Simple interior, not loads of seating but nice and relaxed. Booking a fourth and fifth visit in the next two weeks for lunch out of the office! read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and have something in nice weather. What User doesn't like about Burrito Cafe:

Awful awful burritos. Firstly went to get the £3 meal deal. Believed that was what I was getting and then they ask for £7.50 after I obviously didn't spell it out clearly enough I wanted the £3 burrito that all their signs were advertising. There was no mention of a different size or type or PRICE. The burrito itself was just a complete wet, soggy let down. It had ZERO flavour apart from the horrible after-taste of c... read more.
