Stopped for lunch at this mom and pop diner in Tarbert. The menu is very simple but the dishes were expertly prepared. You definitely won't leave hungry. Mine was roast lamb and mint sauce. My wife's was grilled plaice. Both with 3 veggies and if you were hungry some boiled to fill out the plate. Good service and friendly. Simple food but delicious. Dessert was home made. Took me back to home cooked meals growing up.... read more.

What Mark A doesn't like about Enright's:

This is quite a small place with a limited menu (which is fine considering it seems there is only one person who serves, cooks and greets you). I had an average meal which I thought was a little on the expensive side for what I got. The host/cook didn't make any conversation and just let me get on with my meal, would have been nice to have a little bit of banter. I wouldn't come here again but I also wouldn't advise...
