This place has more a feeling of an artistic, social enterprise and a laid back carefree approach. Unfortunately Covid has reduced it to basically offering soup , coffee and cake outside, rather than full lunches. It now functions more as a takeaway and to sell the proprietors handmade clothes which are fantastic! Cake was excellent... A break from the norm! read more. In beautiful weather you can even have something in the outdoor area. What

User doesn't like about An Stad:

Here holidaying with my husband and 3 boys . We were heading into Cafe for food but my son went ahead of us and asked politely may he use bathroom . The lady told him no customers only. Needless to say we didn't enter and choose a lovely pub called The Beschomher around the corner where customer service was polite and welcoming. read more.
