what an excellent local bakery. they totally support local producers. the hot crucibles were great. I also tried the Frangipani tart, mandel croissant, and bought local honey. highly recommended read more. In pleasant weather you can even eat in the outdoor area, And into the accessible rooms also come customers with wheelchairs or physical disabilities. What ann m doesn't like about Bakery On The Water:

What on earth has happened to this lovely bakery /cafe?? Prices have exponentially increased at the same time quality has reduced. I bought a ham salad bap to take away... It cost 5.70...maybe a dearer than last week. I'd have taken it straight back only that I had driven 20 miles before opening. I ditched it because the bread was hard and stale, the tomato obviously old, and the ham, which used to be so fresh, and c... read more. A visit to Bakery On The Water is particularly valuable due to the large selection of coffee and tea specialties, here they serve a comprehensive brunch in the morning. Look forward to the enjoyment of tasty vegetarian meals, Also, there are oven-warm breads available, complemented by an array of both cold and hot drinks.
