yesterday we had a party of 24 people for a surprise birthday party. I have no bad word to say. it was perfect. the staff was great, eating was nice and the price was reasonable! I left the decorations in the night before and the personal in the restaurant decorated in the time for our arrival! they even gave a free brandy to the birthday lady that was a beautiful geste. thank you basmati! Basmati:

rude and disgusting. my last experience in this restaurant was terrible! I have often been in this restaurant and generally receive a reasonable standard of eating and service. my recent trip I received neither and shocked how rude the personal was. our issue was we booked a table, but after mins had not yet set down, despite other parties (without booking) were set before us. we asked why they said there was one tabl...
