good drinks and dips. run and decent amount. very busy at the weekend. the student night is Wednesday, if it is not too full, but also not dead. a good starting point when they visit the city. Eat served all day to late. directly in the center of the city on the hill of barnsley rathaus (market hill.) read more. As a visitor, you can use the WLAN of the place at no extra cost, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and have something.

The premises on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for guests with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. What User doesn't like about The Joseph Bramah:

I can only presume the great unwashed alcoholics that frequented the Silkstone Inn now have moved across to this Wetherspoons, the only one in Barnsley Town Centre. Where i have enjoyed a 'spoons ' in most places I visit this one needs new management, bar staff, chefs and cleaners as has become a real dump. The smell in the dimly lit downstairs area today was horrific and led to us just walking straight through and... read more. The Joseph Bramah from Barnsley is a suitable bar to a cocktail after work, and sit with friends or alone, delicious vegetarian meals are also on the menu available. Of course, the right drink to accompany a meal is a must; for this purpose, this gastropub offers you a wide selection of fine, local alcoholic beverages like beer or wine, here they serve a diverse brunch for breakfast.
