the best (but only) pizza we had in london: on the search for pizza we went to the first place where we saw that outside had a pizza sign to find that they did not sell pizza. a random stranger suggested to try sky pizza. Feel them a bit like...tourists of ordinary tout, say my cousin makes the best .. or let me take them to the best .. we went every way and wise especially because we could find somewhere else. the p... doesn't like about Sky Pizza London:

pizza place the worst around, okay, so it's favorable, but I would recommend saving a few pfunde and going somewhere else. awfully teig with oily residues that the tomato sauce would be terrible cheap, which looks and tastes like plastic and very...stingy with the beats. also a rude employee who took more care to end his personal call before he served customers.
