We went in for Breakfast this Sunday, the food was nothing short of excellent! Well cooked, well thought out, different and superior ingredients made for the best brekky we'd had for a very long time. The coffee was lush. In fact it was so nice we went back for lunch too! If you find yourself in Beer on a Sunday morning looking for a thoroughly decent breakfast at a good price then this is the place to be. read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physical limitations, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and eat. What Sue M doesn't like about Bay View Tea Rooms:

If you like thick bread for your sandwiches, with hard thick crusts, you will love it. See my photo I pulled off all the thick hard crusts and was left with not much else. Not a lot of filling in my cheese and onion toasty. Other than that, love this place great location and happy atmosphere, served by good staff, but no more sandwiches there for me. read more. A roundtrip through Great Britain without getting on a plane is absolutely possible when it comes to culinary delights: Bay View Tea Rooms in East Devon traditionally shines for example with Fish and Chips, mashed potatoes or roast with Yorkshire Pudding and as dessert a delicious Trifle, Inthemorning a hearty brunch is offered here. Not to be left out is the large selection of coffee and tea specialties in this restaurant, delicious vegetarian menus are also in the menu available.
