Visited the boot yesterday with my mum, dad, wife and month old daughter. I've been many times but this visit was particularly good. The food was fantastic with plenty of choice. The kids menu was brilliant and the dish I got for my daughter...was very nicely presented. The staff were all extremely friendly and on the ball. Soph looked after us while we were there and she was amazing. Really enjoyed the visit and wil... read more. You can use the

Boot Slipper:

Server recommended the vegan tomatoe soup for me as I am vegan. The soup came with non vegan butter which I had to a ask about else they'd have just left me to eat it. The waitress took the butter away at my request but...didn't return with any replacement bread which I paid for? The mains were poor. Bun was sticky from the jam and the beetroot burger didn't taste nice at all. Aubergine was undercooked. The triple co... read more. Boot
