My first trip to this Wetherspoons. I went in for breakfast and had to move table three times in order to find a table with dry seats. They had obviously washed them all down but it was an uncomfortable experience sitting on damp chairs. The ladies around me took to sitting on the menus! Perhaps in future they only wash a small number of chairs per day. Staff were very pleasant. By 10.20am the place was almost full.... read more.
