We had an overnight stay at the Moonraker and have to say we were very pleased. The room was large with a massive and comfortable bed. It was clean and could not fault it. We ate in the restaurant on our evening there and the food was excellent. Service in the evening and also at breakfast was quick with the staff very friendly and helpful. The meals are not really cheap ping food but well worth the little bit extra. read more. When the weather conditions is good you can also have something outside. What mary186220 doesn't like about The Moonraker:

We had booked for afternoon tea but waited quite a long time for food although the drinks arrived fairly quickly. I consoled myself with the fact it was being freshly made. No-one came to check if everything was ok as I would have liked hot water to top up the teapot. Sandwiches delicious, cakes fairly mediocre. Just a few couples in restaurant so no atmosphere. This was a Travelzoo voucher deal so maybe you get what... read more. A journey through Great Britain without getting on a plane is easily possible when it comes to culinary delights: The Moonraker in Wiltshire traditionally shines for instance with Fish and Chips, mashed potatoes or roast with Yorkshire Pudding and as dessert a sweet Trifle, Forbreakfast a versatile brunch is offered here. After the meal (or during it), you can still relax at the bar with a alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, Likewise, the guests of the establishment prefer the large selection of differing coffee and tea specialities that the restaurant provides.
