this coffee shop was very easy to get from the nec where I visited an exhibition, it has a fantastic farm underneath that has many local foods. I had a full English that was amazing, the sausage and speck is also all your own witness, which is nice to know. the service was nice, not too in her face, but attentive all the same. I bring my wife back at this weekend to have a real load in the building. I might have to s... read more. The diner is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physical limitations, and there is complimentary WLAN. If the weather conditions are right, you can also eat outside. What User doesn't like about The Hayloft: Great. This lovely coffee shop is just off the and making it a great location, yet set in such lovely surroundings. It is on top of Berryfields Farm Shop (another great find) and serves both fantastic smaller and larger meals, perfect for any appetite. The food is of the highest quality (much of it sourced from the shop, which itself is all sourced locally) and the service is friendly and fast. The perfect little pla... read more. A roundtrip through Great Britain without getting on a plane is absolutely possible when it comes to culinary delights: The Hayloft in Solihull traditionally shines for instance with Fish and Chips, mashed potatoes or roast with Yorkshire Pudding and for dessert a sweet Trifle, here they serve a appetizing brunch for breakfast. It should not be forgotten that there is a extensive selection of coffee and tea specialties in this restaurant, It's possible to chill out at the bar with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
